MOOSUP WOMAN INDICTED FOR MCARTHY MURDER.

Jury Finds Trus Bill Against Mrs. Sarah Lussiar - Trial Begins May

Sarah L. Lussier of Moosup was in-gicted for the murder of George Mc-Carthy in this city Tuesday morning by a grand jury. Her trial will com-mence May 21. The jury conferred in the common council chamber and the session lasted two hours, resulting in a true bill against the accused. Seven messes for the state were examined, but what they said is not known as the session was secret. Mrs. Lus-

Some time scon a recruiting meeting will be held in this city to get volunteers for the Polish army. Up to this time most of the recruiting was done by mail, and the Willimantic Poles were found to be very patriotic.

The Austrian Poles, several hundred of whom live in Willimantic, are barred from the U. S. army, as enemy aliens, since their lands were held by either Germany or Austria, but in all cases the men want to fight against those two countries. The new Polish army is being formed for this purpose, as it will become part of the allied army, fighting against the common foc.
